

Message from Asbestos Victims Support Groups Forum UK

October 17, 2012

The members of the Asbestos Victims Support Groups Forum UK who met today (October 17, 2012) in London send fraternal greetings to Andeva officials and members and congratulations on your activities in Paris on October 12 and 13, 2012.

The UK and France share a tragic history regarding the repercussions of asbestos exposures at work, at home and in the environment. UK activists express our solidarity with your efforts and our sincere appreciation of all you are doing for the French victims.
